What do I Really Want to Write About

You would be amazed at the number of people who sign up for courses teaching them to write a book, and have no idea what it is they want to write about.

This exercise is designed to quiet your mind and let it release the dross that is currently filling your every waking thought! Write it all down. Go through it thinking with your heart; you will be amazed at how this changes your perspective. You will probably have two or three choices ... you only need one!
